“ I will miss Pinky. She was always smiling and never complained. I will see you in paradise my dear sister.. To The Family, Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).

“ I Hadn't seen my cousin Bernetta in years and I was deeply saddened to learn of her passing. She has ascended to a better place resting without sorrow sickness or pain a place prepared by The Father I can not grieve for Bernetta but I grieve for Esther, Alice ,Dennis Arnold And Wilbur Allen I grieve for all who knew and loved her . Surely I grieve for me. I may not always remember the date she she passed this way ; but for as long as I reside in this planet I shall never ever forget That she lived and although it has been a while I wish to thank God for having given me the privelege to have walked in her grace. May Gods Holy grace be an inspiration

“Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.” (1st Corinthians 15:54-58) Precious family be comforted by the words of scripture that our beloved "Pinkee" is resting in the arms of Jesus.

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of your love one; please accept my sincere condolence. I hope you will find comfort in what Jesus' promise about all those who have fallen asleep in death: "Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Just imagine the joy of being reunited with your love one again. -John 11:38-44. May Jehovah continue to bless the Lambert's Family. -Isaiah 66:13.
