“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ You have my deepest condolences. In God's word, we find much comfort during grievous times. "He is healing the brokenhearted ones, And is binding up their painful spots." Psalms 147:3 God also tells us: "From the power of the grave I will redeem them; From death I will recover them. Where is your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness O Grave?" Hosea 13:14 This means: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." Daniel 12:2 May reflecting on the time when you will be reunited with Bernice, right here on earth under perfect conditions, being you comfort.
