

Bertha Mae Cephas

July 20, 1954 - June 1, 2020

Bertha Mae Cephas departed this life at Future Care in Baltimore, Maryland. She received the loving care of the staff, friends and family.

Bertha graduated from North Dorchester High School in Maryland. She was looked up to by her brothers and sisters and was loved by her nieces and nephews. She enjoyed helping everybody she could. She was known for her handwriting.

Bertha leaves to cherish fond memories, one brother, Abraham L. Cephas, Jr., of Baltimore, MD; two sisters, Martha Keene of Easton, MD and Alvina Cox and her husband, Dunbar Cox of Windsor, NC; three children, Dontré Cephas-El of Baltimore, MD, Chynelle Berry of Cambridge, MD and Steven Woolford; nephews, Travis Aldridge of Atlanta, GA, Jerron Cephas of Martinsburg, WV and James Cephas of Hurlock, MD; three nieces, Paulette Keene of Martinsburg, WV, Kanisha Cephas of Windsor, NC and Sonya Farrow of Cambridge, MD; two aunts, Nettie Berclay of Hurlock, MD and Mary Howard of NJ; seven grandchildren, Asiyah Cephas-EL, Dontré Cephas-El II, Ayanna Cephas-El, Mireielle Cephas-El, Johnathan Vargas, Jasmine Vargas and Jeremiah Vargas; as well as a host of cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted by The Family