“ To The Family:

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. I think everyone knew Miss Betty. She was well loved by many. I think everyone will always remember her sitting on that porch always ready to talk to you and her smile was contagious. She was a special person and will be truly missed. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief. At Acts 24:15 it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please look forward to that time, and until then, may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ Ms Betty, Mother-in-law:

Your transition was the last thing I expected to hear. But God is in charge of everything. You left us with your light, your love, your wit and and your spirit around us always. Your knees are now perfect, no more worries, no more pain. We miss you, but You have your well deserved angel wings. I see flights of angels singing thee to thy rest. Rest in eternal peace. Love Always, Joann

“ Ms. Betty, I use to enjoy coming around on the scooter and sitting on the porch with you and we talk about pretty much anything, you have always showed me kindness from way back when I was a big boy running across the high school parking lot trying to catch my bus and my bus left me but you picked me up, you knew the big boy was tired (smile) So until we meet again, you will truly be missed and i will always glance at your porch when I ride by.

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard, may your family find strength in God's promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon “he will swallow up death forever”. You have my deepest sympathy on the loss of Betty Bowens.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
