

Betty Lorraine Little

July 8, 1930 - October 10, 2025

In Loving Memory

Betty Lorraine Scott, affectionately known as Lulu to her family, departed her earthly life on Friday, October 10, 2025 at Complete Care at Corsica Nursing Home in Centreville, Maryland. A long time resident of Centreville, Maryland, Betty lived for ninety-five (95) glorious years.

Betty was born July 8, 1930 in Hayden, Maryland. She was the oldest of two children born to the late Mary Kellum and Emanuel Scott, Jr. She received her formal education in the public schools of Queen Anne's County, Maryland.

Betty was married to the late Arthur Little, Jr, and was employed as a domestic worker for over fifty (50) years. In her leisure time, she enjoyed watching court shows, Denzel Washington movies and she loved growing her flowers.

Betty always greeted you with a smile and never hesitated to help any one she could. She gave advice freely; it was difficult to tell when she was upset unless she said "I'm not arguing with you." That is how we knew to leave her alone.

Betty was preceded in death by: her husband, Arthur Little, Jr.; one brother, Calvin Scott; two sons, Ronald Rochester and Guy Pearson and a great-great granddaughter, Breona Parker.

She is survived by: two sons, Howard Scott (Fran) of Upper Marlboro, Maryland and James Taylor (Dorothy) of Greensboro, Maryland; four daughters, Marie Hester of Wilmington, Delaware, Mary Rochester of Easton,

Maryland, Betty Rochester of Centreville, Maryland and Joycelyn Lyn-Kew (Howard) of Odenton, Maryland; twenty-two (22) grandchildren; sixty-two (62) great grandchildren, forty-one (41) great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
