“ I am so sorry about the loss of your loved one. Please look forward to the time when you can be reunited with her again as the bible promises at John 5:28&29.It says "There is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous". Also, it tells us that soon "Death, sickness and pain will be gone forever" (Revelation 21:3&4)Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed. Please accept my deepest sympathy, I know how you feel at this time. We recently lost a loved one also.

“ Nakisha, and Family, We, would like to take a moment to express our sincere condolences to you and your family during your hour of bereavement. Hold on to those special and precious memories of your mother for they are worth more than silver and gold. God chose another beautiful flower for his garden, and her name is 'BEVERLON". May continue to bless and keep you in his care. It may be dark, and dreary now but there is a bright side somewhere. Sadly Submitted, Robin Pickens, Talisha Tilghman, and Carlton Holmes (Homestead Manor Assisted living)

“ My condolences to Beverlon's husband, children, family and friends. I know I will truly miss her smile and outgoing personality at the outlets. She was truly a joy to work with. I trust the memories you made with her will live on in your hearts and minds and will come to provide you comfort in the days ahead. All of us are thinking of you and praying for your peace.
