

Beverly Rose Phipps

February 23, 1938 - May 5, 2019

Beverly Rose Phipps was born on February 23, 1938, in Brooklyn, New York. She was the youngest child born to Thomas and Rhoda Allaway. Shortly after her birth, the family moved to St. Albans, Queens, New York.

Beverly received her formal education in Queens, New York, and after graduating from Andrew Jackson High School, she started working in the clerical field. After she started a family, she went back to school, earned her Associates Degree and became an executive secretary. Beverly worked at Interfaith Medical Center for many years and retired in May of 2000.

Beverly met and married Raymond Phipps in 1959, and this union produced 3 children, Pamela Rose, Loretta Ramona and Jonathan Raymond. Beverly raised her family in Brooklyn and the family would travel back to Queens every Sunday for family dinners at her parents house. Her siblings and their families were in attendance, often joined by other family members, making the gatherings festive and full of love.

After her husband's passing, Beverly sold her home and followed her daughter and her family to Delaware. She joined the Elegant Ebony Woman of the Red Hat Society, and was a very active member, participating in a number of social events and parties.

Beverly loved her grandchildren dearly and was always providing love and support in all of their endeavors. Her passing has truly filled their hearts with sorrow, but they know she is in a better place.

After she was diagnosed with lung cancer, Beverly admitted that she had no complaints. She lived life to the fullest and enjoyed playing cards, going to shows with her friends, traveling, and of course, going to Dover Downs.

Beverly was predeceased by her husband Ray, her daughter Pamela, her son Jonathan and her sister Thelma.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her daughter Loretta; son-in-law, James; brother, Thomas Allaway, Jr.; sister-in-law, Rose; granddaughter, Jada; grandsons, Julian and Justin; nephews, Michael and Brian; nieces, Patricia and her husband, Gregory and Yvonne; goddaughter, Arlene; a special devoted friend, Gretta, along with many relatives and friends.

Beverly leaves behind strong memories of an energetic, powerful, independent woman who touched and was loved by all that met her.

Lovingly Submitted by the Family

Tribute Wall

MW

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jesus Christ boldly promised: Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Ms Woodson - May 27, 2019 at 01:29 PM

JO

“ My deepest condolences to the family. May God be with the family of Beverly Rose Phipps and give them peace In their time of grief. Reading from the Scriptures can help. (Roman 15:3).

JoyceA - May 13, 2019 at 04:57 PM

SR

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. The Bible tells us that turning to God in prayer at times like this draws us close to him (James 4:8). God is aware of the pain you are feeling and will provide the comfort and support that you need to get through this difficult time (Psalms 46:1). May God's promise for the future (John 5:28, 29) give you a wonderful hope in seeing Beverly once again.

SR - May 13, 2019 at 08:57 AM

HF

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\u201c

H. Fields - May 12, 2019 at 08:38 AM

VM

“ I am very sorry for your loss. While words fail to capture the pain of losing a loved one, we look forward to the time when words will fail to capture the joy of having our heavenly Father return your dear one to you. Please read Isaiah 25:8 and John 5:28, 29. Our loving Heavenly Father is always there to comfort you through this difficult time.

Valerie Maeberry - May 11, 2019 at 02:27 PM

IR

“ Sorry for your loss of a loved one. Read Psalms 46:1 for words of comfort and peace.

Irene - May 11, 2019 at 11:24 AM

LP

“ Sorry for you loss. Beverly will be missed by many. Always full of life. Remember the great memories.

Love Mike,Vicky,Danielle and Trevor Poole - May 10, 2019 at 10:15 AM

GR

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Times like this are so difficult to deal with as we mourn those we love. May you find some comfort in the promises Almighty God gives us in His Word, the Bible (Hebrews 4:12). One outstanding promise He gives is that one day his only-begotten son, Jesus Christ has been given the power and authority to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Jesus showed he could and would do this when on earth he raised a dear friend from death (John 11:43, 44). Death is an enemy even to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He is going to have death removed forever along with other things that cause mankind pain and suffering (Revelation 21:3, 4). Keep that real hope alive and it will strengthen you in the days ahead! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

George & Christine Ragusa - May 09, 2019 at 12:40 PM

PW

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Beverly. So true are the words of Psalms 90:10, "The span of our life is 70 years, or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; they quickly pass by, and away we fly."

Phyllis W. - May 09, 2019 at 11:49 AM