“ To the Anderson Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Death is a visitor that no one wants to come calling. That is because man was not meant to die. It was only because of one man (Adam)that sin entered into the world, and death through sin. (Romans 5:12) But, God has promised: "He will swallow up death forever." (Isaiah 25:8) He also promised there will be a raising up of those who have fallen sleep in death. (John 5:28) May the thought of knowing that God truly cares about the pain you are feeling and that he will soon rectify matters bring you comfort during your time of sorrow.
