

Blanch Annie Mae Spicer

May 7, 1937 - July 8, 2023

BLANCH'S STORY

Blanch Annie Mae Spicer, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, departed her life at the age of 86 on Saturday, July 8, 2023 at the University of Maryland Eastern Medical Center after a short illness, with her daughter never leaving her side.

Blanch was born on May 7, 1937 in a camp in Waddell's Corner in Hurlock, Maryland. She was the daughter of the late Helen Quaile and Clemon Parker.

She was educated in the Dorchester County school system, coming out at a very young age to work and help raise her brother and sisters.

Blanch met and married the late Calvin E. Spicer, and they spent many years together until his passing. She was a homemaker who loved caring for her family, as well as being their hairdresser and babysitter for all who needed her. Blanch loved taking part in all family activities, bringing her macaroni salad and pineapple upside down cakes and sharing her love with so many.

She was preceded in death by five sons, Robert Quailes, Henry Quailes, Alfred McDaniel, Louis McDaniel and Bruce McDaniel. From her first union to the late Henry McDaniel, she was preceded in death by one son-in-law, Donnie A. Harris and three sisters, Ethel Woolford, Annie Smith and Hattie Conway.

Her memory will be cherished by: her only daughter, Blanche Inezz Harris, with whom she lived with in Salisbury for many years; one son, Billy Quailes of Newport News, Virginia; two brothers, Fred Smith (Gloria) and Roy Smith; two sisters, Lily Richards and Virginia Smith; ten grandchildren, twenty-eight great-great-grandchildren; twenty great-great-great grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and very close friends and a special friend, Tricia Banks.

SUBMITTED WITH LOVE,
THE FAMILY
