“ To Terrilyn and family, sorry for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort from God's word which gives us hope for the future of seeing our loved ones again. John 5:28&29. May you also find comfort in knowing that we can go to God in prayer for the strength to cope with this difficult time. 2 Corinthians 1:3&4, may you also find comfort from friends and family through memories you share. Again, sorry for such great a loss.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Brad. Please find comfort in the words of Isaiah 41:10, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness." God will help you during this difficult time of grief. To learn more please go to jw.org.
