

Brandee Brunson

January 31, 1990 - March 23, 2020

Obituary

Brandee La'Trice "Lu-Lu" Brunson of Salisbury, MD, the daughter of Elise Deshawn Moore (Earl) of Salisbury, MD and John Eddie Brunson of Florida, was born on January 31, 1990 in Greenville, North Carolina. She unexpectedly departed this life on Monday, March 23, 2020 at the age of thirty (30) in Berlin, MD at Atlantic General Hospital.

Brandee graduated in 2009 from Parkside High School. Later she pursued her education at Delmarva Beauty Academy, where she fulfilled many of her dreams and aspirations in styling hair. She was also known for shopping and keeping her nails and hair done. While dedicated to her employment, she was a former employee at Perdue Farms as a Quality Assurance (QA) worker prior to her advancement as a USDA Inspector for Mountaire Farms. She loved her job and maintained positive friendships with everybody.

Brandee cared for everybody she held dear to her heart and left us all with beautiful memories. She was an amazing sister, daughter, niece and friend to all who knew her. One thing we all knew was that she wanted everyone to be happy and feel appreciated.

In addition to her parents, she leaves to cherish precious memories: her sisters, Ra'Quel (Daryl) Sinclair, Shonna Moore (Billy), Juanita Brunson (Tracey) and her sister-in-law LaToya Douglass, all of Salisbury, MD; her brothers, Aaron Moore of Salisbury, MD and Jasiah Brunson of Goldsboro, NC; nephews, Tramaine Walters. Jr. of Salisbury, MD, Zy'Meir Moore of New Bern, NC, Ky-Mani Toomer, Sincere Burks, La'Khi and La'Cari McKinney, Ryan Waters III and Daivon Sinclair, all of Salisbury, MD; nieces, A'amyah Moore, Aubrey Moore and J'Shonna Culley, all of Salisbury, MD; Godmother, Annabelle White of Salisbury, MD; grandmother, Jennie Brunson of New Bern, NC; aunts, Julia Davis (Jason) of Raleigh, NC, Sharell Allen (Jason) of New Bern, NC, Tondralaya Davis (Antwone) of Salisbury, MD and LeKearia Wilson (Barrett) of Georgia; uncles, Ryan Funchess (Valerie) of Windsor Mill, MD and Dante Davis of Salisbury, MD and a host of cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Betty Byrd (Will), her grandfather Columbus Moore, her niece, Alexis Moore, her nephew, Joshua Culley, Jr. and her niece, A'arionah Moore.

Lovingly Submitted ~ The Family

Tribute Wall

SA

“ My prayers and thoughts are with you all during this difficult and unbelievable moment. I know that God knows and He cares about every hurt felt and every tear cried. God has promised never to leave nor forsake us and I have to know without a shadow of doubt that He\u2019s with us during this difficult time now. I pray God\u2019s continued peace and strength upon you all. I love you all! Brandee, my beautiful niece... I will always remember that funny cackle and that beautiful smile. I know you\u2019re smiling even the more now as you \u201cRest in The Lord\u2019s Arms\u201d . I will see you again, but until then fly high.,,smile big... and \u201ccackle \u201c loud!!! You will be missed but never forgotten!!! Love, Auntie Rel

Sharell Brunson Allen - April 06, 2020 at 01:20 PM

JD

“ My sweet LuLu, This is a tough one babes!!! I can still see your smile and hear that high pitch laugh. Thinking of you and seeing your pictures has made me smile during this hard time! !!! We shared a lot of special memories and it hurts that we didn\u2019t have more!!! I do thank God for the time we had together with cooking, sharing wigs (lol), shopping and getting my hair braided!!! I will never say goodbye but until we meet again! I love you Lu Lu from your Aunt Ju!!

Julia Davis - April 05, 2020 at 08:37 PM

LW

“Brandee was such a beautiful little girl. I think she started my foot fetish because I use to love her little fat toes. I smile when I think of her little feet w fat toes. I love you baby girl. Your life was and is a true blessing to our family as well as the family you gave life to. I am so proud to be your auntie. Spread your wings and fly baby.

Lekeaira Wilson - April 02, 2020 at 01:58 PM