Brandon's Obituary

"In All Thy Ways Acknowledge HIM and HE shall direct thy paths. Prov 3:6"
When you're hurting and tears are flowing, let GOD rescue you!

Brandon Asbury Webster Smiley, born June 27, 1980 in Salisbury, Maryland, to Beverly Ann Harmon-Fahey (Baltimore MD) and Lee Smiley, Jr. (Salisbury, MD), transitioned on March 26, 2022 at his Baltimore, Maryland residence. Brandon attended Wicomico Senior High School and received his diploma from James M. Bennett, both in Salisbury, Maryland. He received an associate degree from DeVry University in Electrical Computer Science. Brandon was employed by QRMS as an HVAC Specialist. He also worked for B&M Escavating Company Inc. and held several positions in the food industry.

Brandon was a loving, gentle, outgoing, kind spirit who adored his family and friends. Brandon was a people's person and had so much Life in him and he enjoyed making everyone he met laugh. His mesmerizing smile lit up the room. Brandon had some tough moments, but he didn't allow those obstacles to diminish his dreams of success. Brandon shared, "Where people mess up basically is trying to live up to other people's hustle, not appreciating your own. NOT ME! What's meant for me is for me, so I'm GRATEFUL! ..."

Brandon was an avid Bengals fan! You could hear him shouting aloud "WHO DEY.” He relished their victory and anguished in their defeat. Brandon enthusiastically displayed his personality as a content creator in his Facebook, Instagram and Tik Tok postings. He enjoyed chess, spades, uno and dominoes.

To cherish precious memories, Brandon is survived by: his parents; siblings, James III, Joshua and Toi; nieces and nephews, Brontya, Demetri, Dorian, Sophia, Domon, Ja’lil, Jakorey, Aiden, Glory and Ronan; great nephews, Keonte, Kharson, Kaiden and Nasir; a host of aunts, uncles and cousins and best friends, Darian, Dorian, Durelle and Vincent.

Brandon was preceded in death by his grandparents Sarah and William Warner, Bessie Whittington and Lee Webster Smiley, Sr., his stepfather, Timothy Fahey, his uncles Antoine and Chucky and his niece, Jasmine.

Poetry

I’ll never see your face again or hear your laughter. As days go by, I remember you still as you were when you were still here.

With swollen tears and a heart that aches, I’ll never again feel your embrace. Even though your spirit is here, it’s just not the same as hearing your voice and seeing you near. No more tomorrows will hold you, only yesterday remains.

Yet the sun still sets, and the stars burn bright. The morning becomes day, the day becomes night. But you are not here and the sorrow and pain that death can claim bring heavy hands. It’s just not the same.

And I wish that you were still here with footsteps light and laughter long.

“ This is heartbreaking to hear. We grew up together and were classmates. Although I haven't seen you in many years, this hurts to hear. You will be missed. Rest easy.

“ My many fond memories of Brandon will always be in my heart. He was friends with my son, who is named Brandon as well. We would laugh each time I called Brandon, as to which one I wanted. Always laughing and joking that's how I will always think of Brandon.
