

Bruce Tyrone Freeman

December 5, 1964 - April 17, 2020

Bruce Tyrone Freeman, peacefully transitioned to be with the Lord on Friday, April 17, 2020, at his home in Easton, Maryland, at the age of 55.

Bruce, the son of the late Frisby “Bobby” and Marjorie “Betty” Freeman, was born on Saturday, December 5, 1964, in Easton, Maryland.

Bruce was educated in the Talbot County Public School System and flourished in the sport of basketball, which earned him nicknames like “Magic” and “Salley”. Bruce graduated from Easton High School in 1983 and continued his education and love for basketball in college.

Bruce returned home and worked at various locations, mostly restaurant work. Yes, restaurant work, because like his father, he had skills and he loved cooking and throwing things into a crock-pot. When Bruce wasn't cooking, he was your local Uber driver, unofficially, that is.

Bruce was the life of the party, with that huge, irresistible smile and laugh. When he walked into the room, you knew that something special and memorable was about to happen, “He was fittin' to get loose.”

Bruce had many, many friends, homies, besties, his posse, his boys; too many to name. They all played an important role in his life. Bruce was also a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan, which of course led to many bets and rivalries between him and his friends.

In addition to his parents, Bruce was preceded in death by his brother, Curtis "Curt-CF" Freeman Sr.

Bruce's memory shall be cherished by his daughter, Nya; siblings, Deborah "Debbie" Freeman, William "Bill" Freeman, Frisby "Luke" Freeman 3rd and Yvonne Freeman all of Easton, MD; nieces & nephews, Hope Limberry, Natasha "Tasha" Limberry, Andrew "Dre" Faulkner, Shemeka Macer, Tia Freeman, Latasha James, Curtis Freeman Jr. and Amber Groce; great nieces & nephews; TyRaye Wilson, Keosha Copper, BryNika Pinder, Bryant Pinder Jr., Keaisha Copper, TyReice Wilson, Keiford Copper 3rd, Male'na Chadwick, Savannah Chadwick, Ashtyn Corbin, Averie Corbin, Kai Freeman, Khloe Freeman and Curtis Freeman 3rd. ; great-great nieces & nephews, Zy'Heem Pinder, My'Hira Dixon, and Greyson Banks. He also leaves a longtime friend and companion, Eileen Taylor; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many-many friends.

“ Truly the life of the party. I have memories for days. Being around Bruce you were sure to get some laughs in. Bruce always complimented me (and probably others too) on my teeth, but for real he had one of the best smiles ever. He will definitely be missed by many. May he rest in sweet peace. Family, my prayers are with you. Much love to all. \u2764\u2764
