“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Captain Polk I didn't know that when I saw you on the hospital on 3/19/15 that would be the last time we talk. I thank God for allowing me to work with you. I know that you are not in anymore pain. I will truly miss you especially when you would walk down to HU 5 and just sit and talk. Gone but not forgotten Segregation officer rock. Rest on Captain Polk and I will see you again. Family continue to pray and keep God close to you.

“ Bruce was just one of those people. You had to like and love him. It didn't matter if you saw him once in a while or if you saw him often, he was the same person. He had that same smile and something to say. While he will be missed here on earth, what better place to be than rejoicing in heaven.

“ When I heard this news I was devastated!! Allow me to say: as my career was in full swing.. I remember Bruce as one of my closest friends while working there. I remember working with Bruce. Especially in Housing Unit 4. I worked all the Housing Units, and even after my promotion going to the East compound, I worked Housing Unit 5; 6-7-8. Bruce was my friend, I was proud to be a friend with him! I hope his family members will see this, and KNOW that even after 5 years in retirement...I remember those who MEANT so much to me as a "co-worker" and MORE as my friend!! Thank You...so much MY FRIEND...I'll miss you!

“ You were one of the finest people anyone could have had the honor of knowing. Although we worked together in such a "different" environment, we were still able to have much laughter and friendship. We pray that your family will be comforted by the memories and legacy you created. Those who knew you have been truly blessed, and made so much better for having known you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4)He also gives us hope of being reunited with those we have lost in death. (John 5:28&29)So please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be strengthened and blessed at this time. Please accept my sympathy.

“ It was truly an honor to have known Bruce as a great friend and co-worker. He will be greatly missed by those of us who knew him personally and professionally. To the family, we prayer that God will continue to strengthen you today and in the days to come. God's word tell us in Deuteronomy 33:25, as thy days are, so shall thy strength be. He will guide you through each day and heal your heart. Stay close to Him and Be Blessed!!!!
