

Bruce Turner

April 2, 1958 - April 14, 2014

Bruce Allen Turner, the son of Jean Virginia and the late James Ira Turner, completed his life journey on April 14, 2014 at The House in the Pine Nursing Home in Easton, Maryland.

Bruce was preceded in death by his father, James Ira Turner; a sister, Sonya; his maternal grandparents, George Henry and Beulah Mae Green; three aunts, Betty Mae Gross, Evelyn Green and Magdalene Turner; six great-aunts, Dorothy, Mildred, Frances and Gertrude Wilkins, Nora and Mary Green; eight uncles, Maurice Turner, George, James, Gordon, Wallace, Charleston, Ronald and Donald Green and four great-uncles, Herbert, Joshua, James and Gernie Wilkins.

Bruce was born on April 02, 1958. He was educated through the Queen Anne's County Public School System.

During his adult life, Bruce worked various jobs. He was employed at Friels Canary in Wye Mills; Conagra in Queenstown; Campbell Soup in Chestertown and many years with Hardees in Centreville, until his illness prevented him from working any longer.

Bruce was well-liked by everyone that knew him. In spite of his illness, he was a high spirited, loving and caring person. He lived each day to its fullest. He didn't allow his sickness to hinder him. He still displayed his funny character and his side smile with the ability to say anything and I mean anything out of his mouth that would get on his siblings nerves.

He loved his family and friends and most of all his food and snacks. He would sometime share but not all the time, only when he felt like it. He would also have a problem if you touched his stuff without asking.

Bruce would always catch the attention of his family and friends when he was around; especially, when he would get dressed to step out for the evening. He knew he had it going on with himself. He loved to dance and if the music was pumping, he would dance the night away. He also had a passion for playing baseball which he was good at.

He will be missed dearly but never forgotten. His memory will always be in our minds and his love in our hearts.

He is survived by his precious mother, Jean Virginia Turner of Queenstown, MD; two loving sisters, Iris Jean Corbin of Greensboro, NC and Shawn Benita Turner of Queenstown, MD; four brothers, James Ira Turner, Jr. and Rodney Harris (Jeanette) of Queenstown, MD and Jonathan Lee (Sharon) of Trappe, MD and Kevin Alston Turner (Lynn) of Alabama; one brother-in-law, Robert Corbin of Los Angeles, CA; one sister-in-law, Louise Turner of Cambridge, MD; one uncle, John Edmond Green of Newark, Delaware and two uncles-in-law, John Robert Gross of Grasonville, MD and Billy Reese of Dover, Delaware; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousin and friends. He also leaves a special friend, Debbie Rochester and her daughter, whom he raised as his own, Tynessha Copper and her children, Kamiyah, Cameron and Aviana.

Recognition of his best friends and cousins "The Scott Town Crew":

Christopher Gross, Delroy Green, Shelton Turner , Tony Warrick and Shawkeen Johnson and the late Erton Price who passed on March 7, 2014.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Bruce Turner, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. We all look forward to the near future when the earth will be a renewed paradise and death will be no more. (Rev 21:3,4)

Sherry - April 30, 2014 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. It was indeed a shock to learn of Bruce's death. I remember Bruce as always being so full of life. Our Heavenly Father is aware of your pain. "He is close to the brokenhearted;... (Psalms 34:18) Jean may it bring you and the family comfort to reflect on God's promise that at some point in the future, we will be able to say: "Death where is your victory? Death where is your sting?" (1 Cor. 15:55) Until that time, we are told by Almighty God: "You will rest, but you will stand up." (Daniel 12:13) Bruce is resting awaiting his call to awaken. As you know, this gives you the hope of being reunited with Bruce right here on earth under perfect conditions. May reflecting on the joy you will experience when welcoming Bruce back to life, lift your heart.

Mary Starke - April 17, 2014 at 12:00 AM

RO

“ My heart goes out to you and your family for the passing of your love one. Bruce has been fighting for years to get healed. As we kept his hands in our hands to give him the strength to continue on for us. God stepped in and removed our hands on Monday the 14th to give him a better place of peace and healing that we could not give him. Bruce was more than happy to take the hand of life and healing From God by letting our hand go. He drifted in to Heaven and saying as he leaves to his love ones do not cry for me for I am healed by the stripes of my Lord and Jesus Christ. I will still be with you in your heart. remember the good days that we shared together and I will see you again. We all know that God blessed us with Bruce charming personality and bright smile. I will always remember him with his bright smile and how he would come down to the scale house to watch soap opera with my daughter. Cherish the years that God has giving us to share Bruce. Family hold on to God's hand and he will walk you thru this trying time.

Robin - April 16, 2014 at 12:00 AM

MJ

“ I am so sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. As you prepare to lay them to rest; to sleep in death for just a little while (John 11:11) I hope your family will find solace in the resurrection promise of Jesus; to awaken those who are now sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) restoring them back to life; this time with the hope to live eternally on the renewed Paradise earth, so that God's will, will be done on the earth, as it is in Heaven..-Matthew 6:9,10; Luke 23:43. Until that wonderful blessed promise is fulfilled, and you are reunited with your loved one again; may GOD(Psalms 83:18) soothe your grieving hearts now and grant you peace and comfort, during this most grievous time..-Matthew 5:4.

M Jones - April 15, 2014 at 12:00 AM