

Bryan L. Blackston

August 22, 1967 - February 12, 2014

It was "one glad morning" in February of 2014, that BRYAN CORNEL BLACKSTON quietly slipped away to be with his Dr. Jesus! On Wednesday, February 12, 2014, God decided to inform family and friends of Bryans transition to his new and permanent home address.

Bryan, affectionately known as, "Doodles" and the "Candyman", was born on August 22, 1967 to Earl and Rev. Janice Henry Blackston. He was the youngest of eight siblings.

Bryan received his education from the Kent County Public School System and received his Christian education from Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church. Bryan's Christian nurturing began under the Rev. John T. Chambers and Sunday School Superintendent, Liza Butler. Bryan attended Sunday School and sang on the Sunday School choir, and the family choir, the "Gospel Waves", and even played his drums. Bryan loved to sing and he loved to listen to gospel quartet groups. Some of his favorite song/hymns were: "Dr. Jesus Said He'll Make Everything Alright", "What A Friend We Have In Jesus", and "Yes Jesus Loves Me!"

Bryan had various employers over the years including: Harbor House, Great Oaks Landing, Leers, Dixon Valves and Dixon Auction.

Bryan was quiet-spirited and he would do anything in the world for his family and friends. Bryan had many gifts, talents and hobbies which included: playing drums, singing, cooking, fishing, detailing cars and listening to quartet singing. Bryan even had the pleasure of cooking for talk show host Heraldo

Rivera!

Bryan leaves to cherish his many memories, his father, Earl; his mother, Rev Janice; four sisters: Shirlene, Angelia (Greg) , Iris (William) and Charlotte; three brothers: Linwood (Barbra), Stevie (Darlene) and Pastor Gregory (Shirley); four god-sisters, Shirley Dorsey, Atia Johnson, Trudy Harris and Veronica Rush; one god brother, Phillip Wright, Jr.; six aunts: Trinita, Darcus, Ilene, Delores, Vera and Helen; six uncles: Wayman, Paul, Cornel, Ralph, Douglas and Gregory; two great-aunts, Margaret and Velma; one great-uncle, Hoover; and a host of nieces, nephews cousins and friends.

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Please except our deepest sympathy. Words seem like its not enough when we are going through a time of grief.But the word of God can console us 'I will never leave you nor forsake you". Be encouraged through his word. God Bless you.
