“ Bryan and I were on a school field trip to Washington way back in elementary school. When we stopped for dinner in Easton mom and I noticed Bryan was still on the bus. We asked him why. He had forgotten to bring food money. We bought him dinner that night which he was so grateful for. What a nice kid he was. Very respectful and friendly. A guy you always remember as someone you could approach and speak with. Sorry we lost you, buddy. ❤️

“ Bryan you were definitely a character, always pranking or joking me about something, and you got so much joy in doing it. I could never get mad at you because they were always harmless and so, so funny. I will miss your smile, your jokes, and your love. Rest In Peace until we meet again. Love, your cousin, Barbara. ❤️

“ Jason,Aunt May,Jenny and the rest of our family. I am still trying to accept that I will not see Poodles again in this life. He couldn't help himself with the harassment. It was never a dull moment when he was around. My heart aches for us all but especially for you Aunt May. 💔 No more pain for you cousin. Until we meet again. Much Love and Prayers.....Shirrita
