“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. It's at such times we reflect on our own life and realize even more so how fragile life can be. Be assured Almighty God knows our pain and cares for us very much (1 Peter 5:6, 7). Death is not only an enemy to us but also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). He promises one day soon according to the Bible to get rid of forever this enemy and all the pain and suffering mankind has experienced (Revelation 21:3-5). He is the only one who can make and fulfill such an awesome promise (Isaiah 55:10,11). He also promises to raise from the dead all those who have died (Acts 24:15). When you meditate on what these promises can mean for you and your loved ones, the description of our creator being called the God of All Comfort means so much to us (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ To the Dennis Family
I am sorry for your loss. It is difficult when someone we love passes away. We still have our special memories to help us cope. I hope that 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 where it says that God is always there to comfort us comforts you. I pray this helps you and your family find peace.
