“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At sad and difficult times like this we are reminded how fragile and precious life truly is (James 4:14). My you find comfort and support from family and friends (Proverbs 17:17). Please also find comfort and a sure hope in God's Word, the Bible (Jeremiah 29:11). Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). Our exercising faith in that promise is what Jesus wants us to do (John 11:25). With that promise God also let's us know that one day soon He is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness in the world, and death that only He can promise and fulfill (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:10,11,29). Until then may we do God's will as He has asked and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). Be comforted by the God of all comfort as look up and read all these scriptures in your Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. Also, look forward to the time when the dead will be resurrected. ( Acts 24:15 ) Until that time may your family be comforted and blessed.
