Cameron's Life Story

Cameron Michael Holden, affectionately known as “Cam,” departed this life and went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, September 21, 2024. Born in Salisbury, Maryland, he was the son of Michael and Fay Mills Holden of Salisbury, Maryland. Cameron received his formal education in the public schools of Somerset County, Maryland where he graduated in the Class of 1999 from Crisfield High School in Crisfield, Maryland. Over the years, he was employed with Quality Staffing as an IT Help Desk specialist and recently at Ollie's Bargain Outlet department store.

Cameron was extremely bright and had an old soul about him. His grandparents raised him in Ebenezer United Methodist Church in Marion Station, Maryland. Cameron cherished all his grandparents and told stories about them all the time. He loved his children, friends, and family very deeply. Cameron had many talents such as fixing computer systems, reading technical manuals and talking about world news events. He loved great music of all genres. He loved Motown as well as alternative music. His favorite meals were spaghetti and pizza with hot sauce. He enjoyed watching the Green Bay Packers which were his favorite football team. No matter the sport, he knew all the statistics for each player. Cameron was truly loved and he will be sorely missed.

Cameron leaves to cherish his memories: Angela Ballard (girlfriend), with their three children, Noah Holden, Jackson Holden and Kai Holden, all of Princess Anne, Maryland; his oldest daughter, Th'Aliya Goslee of Fort Washington, Maryland and Kenadi Holden of Berlin, Maryland; four brothers, Dion Mills of Colorado Springs, Colorado and Le'monte Bell, David Holden and Dontae Holden, all of Marion Station, Maryland; his maternal grandmother, Rosalee Mills of Chesapeake City, Maryland and his grandfather, Oscar Miles, Sr. of Salisbury, Maryland; his uncles, Andre Mills of Salisbury, Maryland and Stanley Mills II (Tremella) of Navarre, Florida; his aunt, Kim Cottman (Samuel) of Chesapeake City, Maryland as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and Special Friends (the late James Hayward, Sr. and Mary Hayward and family of Eden, Maryland). Although Cameron loved all his cousins, he had a special bond with Brandon Hitch of Bayonne, New Jersey. Brandon, Angela, and Dion were his best friends, and they supported him to the end.

Cameron was preceded in death by his loving grandparents, the late Fulton and Bessie Holden and the late Stanley Mills, Sr.
