

Carl Hanna

March 21, 1918 - April 8, 2013

Carl L. Hanna was born March 21, 1918 to the late Charles K. Hanna and Eunice (Gardiner) Hanna in Miami, Florida. Carl moved to New York City after a call of duty serving in World War II. Shortly after coming to New York, Carl met and married the late Mildred Gladden.

Carl became a professional tailor. He was a hard worker until retiring at the age of 65. During his retirement, Carl met Ms. Christine Seabrook and the two enjoyed traveling together.

Affectionately known as “Pops”, Carl found a passion for painting while attending the Edenwald Senior Citizen Center. From his self portraits to Picasso reproductions. His talent grew to where there were requests for his paintings. Pops played to win whether it was cards, chess or dominoes.

After moving to Delaware in 2011, Carl attended the Kingdom Hall with daughters, Yvonne and Delores, where he learned of God’s purpose for mankind and the hope of the resurrection.

Carl leaves to cherish his memory his loving life partner, Christine Seabrook and family; daughters, Yvonne Callier and husband (William), Carolyn and husband (Bill), Delores, Antoinette, Denise and husband (Earl); sons, Herbert and wife (Donna) and Harold; 23 grandchildren, 39 great-grandchildren; five great-great grandchildren; one niece, Olivia; two great-nieces; five great-grand nieces and nephews; good friends, Carl and Linda Merrifield and many, many others.

“ I am sorry for the passing of your love one; I offer you my sincere sympathy. Losing a love one in death is the most painful experience we will ever have to deal with, because it was never part of Jehovah God's plans for mankind, it was the penalty for disobedience.- Genesis 2:16,17. God loves us so much that HE created us with the desire to live forever, not to die.-Ecclesiastes 3:11. Eternal life on a beautiful paradise earth was the original plan and still is and it will take place when Jesus raises all those sleeping in death, back to life with the hope of eternal life on the paradise earth; reuniting families.-John 5:28,29; 11:38-44; Luke 23:43. Until then, may you find peace and comfort in God's love.-I John 4:8.
