“ THE COMPASSIONATE FRIENDS

We are so very sorry for the loss of your child. The Compassionate Friends is a nonprofit, self-help support organization offering friendship and understanding to bereaved parents, siblings, and grandparents. There are no religious affiliations, membership dues, or fees. We meet together to learn to cope with the struggles of living life without our precious children. Please feel free to join us on the second Thursday of each month at 7:00 PM in the Branford Lounge at Epworth Methodist Church on Holland Glade Road, Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. For more information call 610-368-0236. We wish you peace and healing. Your Compassionate Friends

“ This one really hurt my heart! All of the conversations, laughs and bible studies we have had over the phone. You will be remembered for your warm smile, your amazing presence and the love you had for the most high and for people. You were a friend to all and the most non-judgmental person I've ever met. It was great seeing you do what you love which is to help people. Your laugh was contagious and you'll never be able to be replaced. A man literally after the most high's own heart flaws and all. Thank you for your time here and for being there for me in the seasons that you were greatly needed! The type of heart and spirit you had has inspired me and there are not enough words I could ever express to explain the amazing person you were. As I told you when you were alive and now in death, I will love you always. Thank you for leaving me with such great memories💛

“ Carl you were a polite, respectful young man. It was a pleasure working with you. No more pain, and no more worries. I take comfort in knowing you are resting in God's arms now. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. You will be missed.

“ Words cannot express what I felt when I heard you passed away. We had good talks and encouragement to each other. Your living your best life now, if I don't know anything I know this you loved God and his people. Rest easy Carl.
