“ My sincere sympathies extended to the family and friends. Among his many assignments, Jesus lovingly promises "to bind up the brokenhearted" and "comfort all who mourn."-Isaiah 61:1,2. Hoping these words bring a measure of solace.

“ Dear Rosa and family,
Carlos was a bright light at CERTS and our collective hearts are broken that he was taken from us all so suddenly.
Carlos was so funny and sweet (and a little bit salty)! He knew how to bring a smile to the face of each and every person with whom he came into contact - what a rare and valuable gift!
As much as we struggle to think of going on in a world without greeting Carlos each weekday morning and spending time with him, it doesn't begin to match what you, his beloved family is feeling.
On behalf of the board of directors, staff and his fellow participants, please accept my heartfelt sympathies.
With tears spilling over, Vivian
