

Carol Mills

April 7, 1970 - July 13, 2019

Carol Louise Murray Mills, was born on April 7, 1970, in Easton, Maryland to the late Geneva May Brown Murray and the late Robert Lee Murray. She departed this life on Saturday, July 13, 2019.

She was raised in Bridgeville, Delaware and attended Woodbridge High School, graduating in 1988. Carol was employed as a head cook and caterer at Jimmy's Grill in Bridgeville, Delaware. While there, she became well known to the customers. She loved to cook and help people. She was always willing to teach someone how to cook. Her specialty was sweet potato pie, with a graham cracker crust. Carol was also employed as a Certified Nursing Assistant, working in various nursing homes in the area.

Carol enjoyed going to her church, Jesus is Lord in Jacksonville, North Carolina. She loved to sing and was a member of the choir. She took pride in being a part of the church family.

Carol's hobbies included watching cooking and reality shows, traveling and taking road trips was something she did every summer, if she felt up to it.

On March 3, 2006, Carol married Pierre Lamonte Mills. They relocated to Jacksonville, North Carolina, where she remained for over eight years. Later, she returned to Delaware to help care for her father, Robert Lee Murray.

Carol leaves to mourn her loss her devoted husband, Pierre Lamonte Mills; children, Victoria Spence Murray, Jonathan Murray; step-children, Just'us Mills, Ja'had Mills, Tristan Mills and Tianna Mills; siblings, Honoria Smith, Dana Wilson, Renita Ringgold, Richard Dale Wright, and Keith Ringgold; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
