

Carolyn Roberta Stansbury

August 8, 1953 - February 26, 2020

Carolyn Roberta Stansbury, daughter of the late James Edward and Anna Elizabeth Hynson, was born Saturday, August 8, 1953, in Worton Point, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, February 26, 2020, at home with her husband, brother and sister-in-law at her side. She was 66 years young.

Carolyn graduated from Chestertown High School, where she played sports such as field hockey and was a very good goalie. She was also in the marching band.

Carolyn married the love of her life, Calvin Stansbury, May 24, 1979. She was a loving and devoted wife and enjoyed bowling with her husband. She loved family gatherings and dancing.

Carolyn knew and loved the Lord, who was the savior of her life. She served the Lord with her heart.

Carolyn started her working career at Campbell Soup and Green Giant. She would later move to Virginia, where she would work for the Double Day Book Publishers, which is the same company that published the book entitled, Roots. She moved back to Maryland and started working for then, Tidewater Publishers, known now as Tidewater Direct and retired from there after 40 years of employment.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her mother and father; sisters, Helen 'Sugar' Newman and Barbara Brice; and brothers-in-law, Marion and William Stansbury.

Carolyn leaves to cherish her memories, her sweet husband of 40 years, Calvin Stansbury; brothers, James Hynson (Elaine) of California and Stevenson Hynson (Gail) of Magnolia, DE; sisters, Hester Newnam (Julius) of Chestertown, MD and Lavern (Adrian) Blake of Worton, MD; brothers-in-law, Eric Brice of Baltimore, MD, Carl Stansbury (Margaret) of Wilmington, DE and Foster Stansbury (Brenda) of Detroit, MI; stepson, Edwin Henry (Yolanda); step-grandchildren, Evan and Majiyah Henry both of Tinton Falls, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
