“ What I remember the most is her beautiful smile. We go way back to the 70's and 80' as we grew up together and later worked together at Perdue in Milford Delaware. In the later years we would run into each other out shopping; she usually had her Mother with her. I will miss running into her in the stores shopping. Carolyn always had a beautiful smile on her face and she was such a sweet kind friend. I was so sad to hear that she was no longer here on this earth but I will keep the memories of her and that beautiful smile in my heart forever.\u2764
