“ I truly will forever miss my friend Carolyn Whitaker. She is the mother of my son-in-law Darryl Whitaker. Carolyn and I would visit our son and daughter at Christmas time. We'd spend a week together every year drinking eggnog while laughing and talking. Carolyn had such a warm and friendly spirit. My condolences and love goes out to her son Darryl Whitaker, his wife Uvette and their granddaughter Destiny. Also sending prayers to her entire family. Until we reunite in heaven, you'll always have a place in my heart.

Gone to soon!! Carolyn was a very active person that enjoyed sports, the arts, and loved people. I am going to miss our visits to the theater, and dinners which consisted of lively discussions. Warm thoughts and sympathy are with the family during this difficult time.

Carolyn's big & beautiful smile, warmth, friendship, and appreciation of life are just a few of the things that I'll miss. She mentored me on and off the job and help me appreciate so many things and just enjoy the moments. She called me her "youngest oldest friend" because I couldn't keep up with her. She touched a lot of lives and was loved by many. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. LaVerne Jackson
