

Cassandra Marie Williams-Burton

September 23, 1982 - November 21, 2020

Cassandra Marie Williams-Burton, affectionately called Sona, was born Thursday, September 23, 1982, to Sonja Williams and Frank Lomax. She departed this life on Saturday, November 21, 2020.

Cassandra received her education from the New Jersey School District and graduated from Paulsboro High School. She attended Delaware Technical Community College when she moved to Delaware.

Cassandra was employed for Genesis Health Care Center and worked at Federal Express, in Seaford, Delaware, for many years, as Supervisor and Hiring Manager. She loved her job and worked diligently until her health failed.

Cassandra was member of Fresh Fire Church of God, in Farmington Delaware. She loved life and was a very loving person. She enjoyed making people laugh. She loved her family and loved spending time with her siblings and daughters. Purple was Cassandra's favorite color. She loved cooking and her favorite show was Chrisley Knows Best.

Cassandra was married to Tyshawn Burton.

Sona leaves to cherish her memories, her mother, Sonja Williams; father, Frank Lomax; stepfather, Marcus Bonner; three children, Lakiya Purnell, Shamyia Purnell and Tashanay Williams; one sister, Tiara Williams; one brother, Jarris Williams; a host of nieces, nephews, great nephews, cousins and friends. She also leaves great memories with her Hospice Chaplin, Benjamin Matlocks, from Season Hospice.

“ Lakiya, Shamyia and Tashanay, Your mom was beautiful inside and out. She always had a smile when I saw her at work. When I started at FedEx as the HR person, your kind mother helped me get acclimated to the business. I miss her and it was an honor to work with her. Sending blessing and my deepest condolences. Regards, Jessica Hitch
