

Catherine Elizabeth Brewington

November 6, 1932 - July 25, 2017

Catherine Elizabeth Brewington was born on November 6, 1932, in Cannon, Delaware, to the late Adolphus and Martha E. (Lee) Roach. She was the last born of fifteen children. God called Catherine home peacefully on Tuesday, July 25, 2017, in her recently new residence at Luther Towers, Wilmington, Delaware.

Catherine attended Middleford Elementary School through 8th grade, Frederick Douglass High School for 9th through 11th grades and graduated from the twelfth grade at Delaware State College, as was the practice then. She continued at the college for one year post high school.

After college, Catherine married Nelson L. Brewington, and to this union three sons were born, Nelson, Ricky and Eric.

Catherine joined Graham African Methodist Episcopal Church in Greenwood, Delaware, and was an active member for many years until she needed to stay close to home to care for her husband, Nelson. She enjoyed helping to plan the church's annual Women's Day celebration.

Catherine retired from Kraft Foods (formerly General Foods) after many years of dedicated service. She was one of the first hired when the company moved to Dover, working on the manufacturing line for Jell-O and other well-known consumer food brands of the company.

Catherine enjoyed working in her flower beds around her home and in recent years mowing her lawn – on a riding lawn mower! She always said that she could do a better job than anyone you could hire from a lawn service!

Another favorite pastime for Catherine was watching her favorite television station, BET. Though she had seen most of the programs and movies several times, she always enjoyed watching them over again.

Catherine also enjoyed shopping for her favorite holiday, Christmas. She could probably fill a department store's holiday section with her personal stock of lights, ornaments, trees, reindeer and Santas. To enjoy the holiday as long as possible, she always put up her outside decorations and her tree with wrapped gifts under it over the Thanksgiving weekend. She truly loved this time of the year.

She leaves to cherish her memory, three sons, Nelson (Glenda), Ricky and Eric of Wilmington, DE; five grandchildren, Derek (Licelis) Brewington, Sharronda (Dairius) James, Britney Brewington, Rajai Brewington and Zai-Mir Brewington; seven great-grandchildren, Derek, Nicolas, Shaylea, Shaniya, Tylyssa, Dairien and Dairius, Jr.; one sister, Evelyn Matthews of Philadelphia, PA; two sisters-in-law, Lydia Roach of Bridgeville, DE, and Elizabeth (Betty) Days of Philadelphia, PA; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My prayers and condolences to Eric and Brewington Family. May God watch over each and everyone in this time of need. I am truly blessed that I was able to be in of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brewington's lives. I will treasure every moment and word of wisdom Mrs. Catherine shared with me. A message below:

Remember Me With Love

*Though I lay dormant, my soul has ascended into heaven;
And there I shall find peace and the freedom to be all that I am.*

Remember me not as you see me now,

But as you held me in your memory through the years

And it will be through these memories that I will be there with you.

Comforting you in your sorrow and guiding you through shattered moments.

Carry me in your heart and the warmth of my love will embrace you in my passing as it has in my being.

Blessing to the Brewington Family

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all. That's why we hurt so bad when someone we love dies. The bible tells us that Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness, tears and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:4) Please look forward to that time. Until then may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be. So, we send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about good news from Almighty God. We are in no way trying to impose our faith on you, but sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17). As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality though for God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). It is our hope that you not take our word for what has been written; but that you take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures and be comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.
