“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. M's Catherine will be missed by many. She had a way of making friends with everyone she met. I remember going on the bus trips every year that she would organize. She was the highlight of the whole trip. Yes, everyone is certainly going to miss her a lot. Please look forward to the time when you can welcome her back during the resurrection. ( John 5:28&29 )Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief.
