

Catherine Marie Jones

January 23, 1925 - August 2, 2020

Catherine Marie Gibson Jones, daughter of the late Elbert Gibson and Edna W Gibson, was born on January 23, 1925, in Royal Oak, Maryland. On August 2, 2020, Catherine Marie Gibson Jones, loving wife, mother and grandmother, returned home to be with the Lord.

Catherine graduated from Moton High School and later attended college at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, formerly known as Princess Anne.

Catherine was raised by her mother. She was very religious. and attended church in Royal Oak. Many times Catherine walked to church with her mother. Catherine was a member of Coppins A.M.E. Church and later joined T. M. Farmen Memorial Church. She was the head usher and was very active in many fundraisers for the church. She had a special talent to get people to donate. Wherever she was she loved to witness about the goodness of the Lord. She had to tell someone.

On November 22, 1947, she married Ralph Jenkins Jones, and this union lasted 54 years. She remained a devoted wife until her husband's passing on August 8, 2001. She was also a devoted mother.

Catherine worked as a factory worker to support her children. Her longest employment was in the poultry processing plants in Federalsburg and Hurlock, Maryland.

Catherine is reuniting with her late husband and daughter, Valerie Chase; brothers, Elbert and Carroll Gibson and William Jenkins; sister, Ernestine Palmer; and bonus stepdaughter, Shirlee Washington.

She leaves to cherish her memory, Diane Nichols, Ralph Jones and Joanna Preston. In addition, three bonus stepchildren, Barbara Pinder, Rodney Jones and Beverly Webster. She touched the lives of her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.
