February 2, 1925 - May 5, 2017

"Death, be not proud!!!

A short sleep, and I will wake again, eternally.

A short voyage, and I will meet my Maker face to face.

By John Donne

I was born on February 2, 1925 in Milford, Delaware, the seventh of ten children born to the late Hurley and Hattie Henry.

I am the product of the Delaware Public School System where I attended Benjamin Banneker in Milford.

On October 31, 1942, I married the late Oscar Vincent Warren of Berlin, Maryland. My greatest pride and joy was found in raising four wonderful children, Steve (who preceded me in death), Elaine, Marilyn, and Gary.

For a time, I worked at the Milford Memorial Hospital, Walter's Dry Cleaners, and Shawnee Country Club as a cook.

Late one Wednesday evening while visiting in July 1978, my daughter led me to accept Jesus Christ as my Personal Savior. I recommitted myself to my Lord and Savior on January 28, 2017.

After retiring, I began to have physical challenges and my activities became somewhat limited. Although my health was failing, I insisted on remaining in my home to continue my hobby of growing indoor and outdoor flowers and plants for a while.

Gary and his wife Mabel were a dutiful, loving, and caring son and daughter-in-law who brought me comfort in my last days.

Give my grandchildren and great grandchildren a big hug for me. Tell my brother-in-law, Douglas Gibson, that I will miss our conversations.

My family, I leave you for now, and I say farewell to Reverend Dr. Katherine E. Rose, Pastor of Bethel AME Church in York, PA; Marilyn Doyle (Jerry) of Manchester, New Hampshire; and Gary Warren, Sr. (Mabel) of Milford; Douglas Gibson, brother-in-law of Milford; Rose Henry, sister-in-law of Philadelphia; my cousins, nine grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren; and two great-great grandchildren.

As I depart, so goes the end of my generation of the Henry clan. Tell my nieces and nephews to carry high the badge of honor of the Henry family. I pray that God will bless all of you as you make your way through life.

I am grateful for the friendship, care and support of my two friends, Darlene Bailey and Bessie Butler, C.N.A.

I love you,

Your Mommy, Grand-mom, Aunt Catherine, Friend,

God's Departed Servant

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of M's Catherine. I didn't have the privilege of meeting her, but I look forward to the time when the dead will be resurrected back to life. Maybe I will get a chance to meet her. The bible gives us hope of seeing our loved ones again at John 5:28&29. As M's Catherine said, she's going to sleep for a little while. When she awakes death, sickness and pain will be no more. ( Revelation 21:4) Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that he gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
