“ Mr. Chanley was one of the nicest people I know. My best memory is when I had my baby girl in 1990 and I was still in the hospital and he called me to ask if I named my daughter yet and I said no so he said do you mind if I name her and I said ok he gave my daughter her name Victoria and he told me a story behind the name he loved so much. For this is one of the many reasons why I loved him like my father. He will be missed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (John 5:28, 29). I hope these thoughts comfort you
