“ I met Charles about 13 years ago when I was teaching one of his sons. Since the first day I met the family, I became a part of it. I have loved this family for years and have become one of their own. Charles was a gentleman, intellect, kind, generous, and always had wonderful conversations. He treated people with respect and dignity.. I will miss this family member dearly, because he has made my life so much richer having known him. My thoughts and prayers go out to Dee and her children, and may God hold them and be with them at this time. Charles, you will be forever in my heart.
