

Charles G. Bordley

June 7, 1935 - April 7, 2020

We, the family of Charles G. Bordley, bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, who took from us our father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend of others, on April, 2020.

Charles "Peas" Bordley, was born on June 7, 1935, to the late Roy Bordley and Ella Brown Bordley.

Mr. Bordley worked at Chestertown Brick Yard for 45 years, as well as did other jobs. He loved playing baseball and horseshoes with his friends.

Charles was preceded in death by his wife, Mercedes Bordley; one daughter, Latricia Bordley; and one granddaughter, Erica Fisher.

Charles leaves to mourn, one daughter, Ruth Shakoor and her husband, Mike of Church Hill, Maryland; three sons, Dwayne Black and his wife, Terry of Chestertown, Maryland, Marcus Freeman of Chestertown, Maryland and Charles Freeman of Sudlersville, Maryland; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a host of cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ *Peas worked with my grandfather, Stump Woodall at the brickyard. I knew Peas most of my life. I was fascinated with the black Peterbilt cabover he drove. Peas was a great guy. Mike Martinez
Chestertown*

Mike Martinez - April 19, 2020 at 12:49 PM

MS

“ Memories of Charles "PEAS" Bordley in the early 1960 playing Baseball in the Semi-pro Eastern Shore negro league "PEAS" strike out 21 of 27 batters that he faced in a game at Baltimore Corner, Maryland. Center-fielder Melvin Shorter Jr.

Melvin Shorter - April 12, 2020 at 04:05 PM