“Buck was my friend we shared our passion for Christ together. Talked all the time had just had a good time together. One thing he never let me forget is that he was a mechanic. He was a good one at that. Charles now is in the hands of God were a good man like him will find his peace, love, and grace of our lord. I know one thing if one of Gods chariots or vehicals is broken I know he will get Buch to fix it. Love you my brother. RIP
