

Charles Allen Cole

October 16, 1957 - February 24, 2024

Charles Allen Cole, 66, of Salisbury, MD, died Saturday, February 24, 2024 at Tidal Health surrounded by his loving family. Born October 16, 1957 in Easton, Maryland, he was the son of the late Charles Mark Cole and Evelyn Marie Cole.

He was a loving brother and uncle who was devoted to his family and his love of Christ. He attended Oak Ridge Baptist Church in Salisbury, Maryland. He worked at Pohanka's Buying Center as an Acquisitions Courier. He owned his own commercial cleaning company, Chesapeake Commercial Cleaning, for many years.

Allen was an outdoorsman who loved hunting, fishing and sunsets. He had a heart of gold and loved people and was a friend to every person he met. Allen was called home to the loving arms of Jesus Christ and has left behind so many who love and miss him dearly. He will always be in our hearts.

He is survived by his sister, Teresa Flores and her husband Pascual of Salisbury, MD and his brother, Mark Steven Cole and his fiance Stacey Montero of Englewood, FL. He has two nieces, Leah Carranza (Wilman) and Mariya Skrzat (Ryan) and is also the great uncle to George, Aracely, and Kenzie.

A celebration of life will be held privately for immediate family in the near future.

Arrangements are in the care of Bennie Smith Funeral Home.

“ I only knew Allen for a year. He impressed me right away with his reliability and cheerful disposition. If he said he would be there you could count on him showing up with a smile. Allen would jump at an opportunity to lend a hand to anyone. I feel lucky to have known him, even for such a short time. My heart goes out to his family.
