

Charles Stanley Emory

April 10, 1959 - March 23, 2025

Alonzo 's Life Story

Charles Stanley Emory departed this life Sunday, March 23, 2025. He was 65 years old, born on April 10, 1959, to the late Hattie Emory and Daniel Pierce.

“Charlie” attended Queen Anne’s County public schools, graduating in 1977. He was employed by Queen Anne’s County Board of Education for 44 years. He also worked for Steve Wilson doing various jobs and was currently working at Corsica Telecom for Claude “Skip” Anthony. Charlie’s main passion was cooking, earning him the name “The Grill Master.”

Charlie was a member of New Life Community United Methodist Church and was a member of the choir. He truly loved the Lord. To ask Charlie how he was doing his reply was always “Blessed by the best.”

Charlie was preceded in death by his daughter Danielle Emory, brothers Fredrick Emory and Gordon Emory, sisters Cynthia Emory Ryans and Frances Emory. He is survived by his loving daughter Shantel Emory, granddaughter Shaniyah Durham, grandson Kaiden Maestre, brother Gary Emory, sisters Blondina Emory, Linda Brummell (Gary), and Bertina Emory, a special friend Betty Rochester and a host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.

Charles Stanley,

What can I say, this one is a hard hitter. You were my Male BFF...THANK YOU FOR BEING A TRUE FRIEND...

I will always cherish the memories of our Dear Friendship and your Smile. Your Presence will truly be missed on earth.

Your favorite saying, "I am Blessed By The Best" That you were!

CHARLIE, IT'S HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO YESTERDAY!

Fly High my Dear Friend and take your WELL DESERVED REST.

Lovely submitted,

Tama

“ Charlie had a great personality. He was loyal, caring and had a sweet spirit that came through in the way he treated you. I will hold many memories of him from my years of knowing him and his family. Although my heart is heavy, I pray that God's promises provide comfort in this void. Thanks for being a friend that made me laugh, showed care, concern and loved his neighbor at all times. Lastly, being a great friend to Joe. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.
