“ My Beloved Uncle Charles is truly missed here on earth. While one day we will meet again with our Heavenly Father. He would call me aunt Mary and that has helped to motivate me to look into our genealogy to find this beautiful lady that Uncle Charles felt that I had her spirit and resemblance. I love you Uncle Charles! May you now be able to rest in Peace”

“ My dear wife and I would like to take this opportunity to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Because times like this are so difficult to cope with, our hope is to comfort you as we've been comforted when we've lost a loved one. The Bible reveals to us good news from Almighty God about all those who have died. He promises that one day his beloved son, Jesus Christ is going to bring the dead back to life - to enjoy life the way God purposed it to be in the beginning (Genesis 1:27, 28). He promises to remove all things that have made life difficult for us, including that enemy death (Revelation 21:3, 4; Psalm 37:9-11). What a glorious day that will surely be! We can trust that this promise from God will be fulfilled, because we know it is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6:18). May you be strengthened and comforted with such a hope as we deal with the challenges and difficulties of life right now (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Charles. Please note the words of Psalms 90:10, "The span of our life is 70 years, or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; they quickly pass by, and away we fly." Life is short. Charles was exceptionally strong to reach the age of 86. Life in Paradise awaits him. (Luke 23:43)

“ To the Evans family, my deepest condolences on the loss of your father. During this difficult time, may the Lord comfort each of you and give you the peace that surpasses all understanding. Although, I did not know Mr. Evans long, I will always remember his smile and the toothpick in his mouth. I will miss Mr. Evans telling Tammy to tell my girl, I said, "hi." I will cherish him for making me feel like one of his family and treating me like one of his own. May you rest in peace, Mr. Evans. Heaven has certainly gained a strong, determined, and courageous Angel. You fought a good fight and now it is time to soar with your heavenly wings! Rest on, Mr Evans! To God be the Glory forever and ever, AMEN!

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you
