

Charles Edward Martin

November 25, 1945 - August 30, 2017

Obituary

Charles Edward Martin “Dump” slipped into eternal rest on August 30, 2017 after a long illness at the Deer’s Head Hospital Center in Salisbury, MD.

Charles was born November 24, 1945, in Stockton, MD to the late Wilbert Thomas Martin, Sr. and Mabel Francis Douglas Martin. He was born and spent his early years in the Rabbit Knaw neighborhood of Stockton and grew up in the Portersville (Greenbackville Road) area of Stockton. He received his education in Worcester County Public Schools, graduating from Worcester High School.

Charles was joined in matrimony to Della Dashield; they have one son, Lovelle Dashield. He loved and adored his family and did everything he possibly could to provide a good life for them.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, one brother, Wilbert Thomas Martin, Jr. and a “stepson”, VeShawn Bratten. He was raised in a Christian household with a family association to former St. Paul’s Methodist Church in Stockton, MD. His surviving siblings are Evelyn Martin, Doris Martin, and John Martin (Barbara).

Charles was employed for long periods of time by Armour Food Company in Salisbury and Hudson Foods in Berlin. He retired early due to health concerns.

Charles was known for his gentle nature, caring heart, and dedication to family. He spent many years caring for his mother when her health declined. Once he married and moved to Salisbury, his oldest sister, Evelyn, carried that torch until their mother passed away. Even though he did not have much, he would share whatever he had and he kept his commitments to pay what he owed.

He also leaves to cherish his memory: one aunt, Helen Martin; two “step” grandsons: VeShawn Bratten, Jr., Traquon Bratten; several nieces and nephews: Jennifer Martin-Johnson (Jonathan), April Martin, Michael Martin, Tanya Martin, Shawn Watson, Jonathan Martin; great-nieces and nephews: Christopher Martin, Jonathan Johnson, Jr., Jasmine Johnson, and Taylor Martin; sister-in-law, Sharon Dashield-Appleby, and brother-in-law, Michael Dashield; and a host of cousins and other family and friends.

“ Della there is no words to say that you haven't heard, we have loss a brother but you my sister has loss your husband. It is painful when anyone leave this earth. I know you're hurting now and there is nothing anyone can say to easy your pain. Charles loved you and over the years we have watch his suffer, he is at rest and you know God calls his children home one's body can take no more. You have been a good wife I have seen you take care of him, lifting him; no one can take that away from you. Martin knows he had a good wife. Martin we will see you again, I pray that God will give Lovelle and Della the peace that only God can give. Many blessing I love both.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
