

Charles Tyrone Reynolds

November 6, 1959 - May 22, 2021

Charles Tyrone Reynolds, “Ty”, was born on Friday, November 6, 1959, to Smithie Lee James-El and the late Charles Peterson. He departed this life on Saturday, May 22, 2021, at Bayhealth Hospital, Sussex Campus.

Tyrone received his early education in the Delaware school districts and was a graduate of Milford High School, in Milford, Delaware. He later attended Delaware Technical & Community College, where he studied Architectural Engineering.

Tyrone was a very skilled artist. In fact, he was so skilled that while studying architecture engineering, he would do his drawings free-hand. The drawings were done so well the professor did not know that Ty did not use the required drawing tools until he would measure for accuracy of scale. Ty would create personal greeting cards for family and friends.

Ty would occasionally be seen wearing a pair of jeans that he had designed, using permanent colored markers. Ty once sold several of his paintings for small sums of money.

The one thing that Tyrone cherished the most was his family. He took every opportunity to show how deeply he loved each family member, in a unique and special way.

Tyrone was preceded in death by his father, Charles Peterson; his dad, Jesse L. James; and his sister, Pamela Reynolds.

Tyrone leaves to cherish his precious memories, his mother, Smithie L. James-El; two sons, Charles Tyrone Reynolds, Jr., Falls Church, VA and Jordon Reynolds, Dover, DE; one daughter, Wilmington, DE; four sisters, Robin Reynolds Sorden, Milford, DE; Sheila James, Felton, DE; Valerie Newsome, Houston, DE and Angie Carrington, Milford, DE; three brothers, George Reynolds (Barbara), Milton, DE, Antonio Reynolds, Sr. (Karen), Lincoln, DE and Jason James, Sr. (Pamela), Milford, DE; one extended brother, Leroy Tice, Sr., Englewood, NJ; one aunt, Lollie Ruth Harris, Chesapeake, VA; a special friend and care provider, Mamie Freeman; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
