

Charles Douglas Sturgis

October 4, 1953 - January 7, 2018

Charles Douglas Sturgis was born to John and Douglas Sturgis on Sunday, October 4, 1953 in Bishopville, Maryland. He departed this life on Sunday, January 7, 2018 at his home in Millsboro, Delaware.

Charles graduated from Stephen Decatur High School in Berlin, Maryland in 1971. He also attended Curtis United Methodist Church in the community of "Campbelltown" in Bishopville, Maryland.

Charles was gainfully employed as a supervisor with Showell Farms, Inc. located in Showell, Maryland, for over 20 years. Most recently he was employed by Mountaire Farms in Millsboro, Delaware.

Charles enjoyed fishing, crabbing, shooting pool, attending drag races, and having family barbeques. Charles will always be remembered for being a hard worker and fixing things. He will forever be known for lending a listening ear to those who needed someone to talk to and gave advice to try to make life a little easier.

Charles was preceded in death by both parents and a brother, John Sturgis, Jr. He is survived by his longtime friend, Diane Freeman of Laurel, Delaware; his only son, Charles D. Freeman of Laurel, Delaware; daughters, Shericka Freeman-Marker and her husband Frederick of Seaford, Delaware, and Katina E. Freeman of Magnolia, Delaware. He also leaves to mourn his loss, a nephew, John Curry of Ellendale, Delaware; a niece, Sherrill Sturgis of Frankford, Delaware; 13 grandchildren, De'Antae Freeman, Kiana Freeman, Labria Northan, Miraye Northan, Zyneazia Northan, Shaimera Baynard, Devrin Baynard, Karl Ingram, Jr., Tyler A. Mills, Tierra Butler, Jada Lynne Freeman, Elijah Freeman and Caleb Hare; two great grandchildren, Le'Sean Wilson and Myasia Butler; and a host of friends and family.
