

Charles Michael Thomas

November 1, 1965 - July 6, 2019

Charles Michael Thomas, affectionately known as “Michael” or “Uncle Mike”, was born on November 1, 1965. Michael was the son of the late Doris Alma Brown and the late Charles Thomas. He went home to be with the Lord on July 6, 2019.

Michael loved spending time with family and friends. Every holiday, he would call to see who was cooking or if somebody was barbequing. He spent countless hours with family. He especially enjoyed spending time with his nephews and nieces and great nephews and nieces.

Mike loved sports. His favorite teams were the Eagles, Phillies and the Sixers. He knew stats for every player in the league, not just for his teams. He was known for always having a well-coordinated sports outfit on, right down to the matching shoes and hat. He also loved listening to and playing music, amassing a very extensive music collection. He enjoyed making CD's for people, which earned him the nickname “Music Mike”. Michael looked forward to going to Spence's Bazaar “The Sale”, and shopping at the Goodwill & Salvation Army. He had a good eye for bargains and would often find something meaningful for a friend or family member. Mike was a giver and always had a gift or card for either a birthday or holiday. He had a genuine connection and love for people, which earned him the nickname “Uncle Mike” in the neighborhood. He was well known around Dover, always being seen on the move, walking or riding his bike.

In addition to his parents, Michael was preceded in death by his grandparents; brother, James Martin; sister, Carolyn Watkins; niece Danielle Emory; great-nephew, Bryant Brount; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Michael leaves to cherish his memory, a daughter, Miranda Thomas; son, Nathaniel Dudley; two grandchildren, Nathaniel Michael Dudley and Kaelyn Yvonne Dudley; two brothers, Leonard Deedon (Bertina) and Kevin Collins (Veronica); two sisters, Brenda Emory and Tracy Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles.
