

Cheryl Ann Hunter

September 26, 1964 - February 20, 2022

Cheryl's Journey

Cheryl Ann Hunter, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, passed away on Sunday, February 20, 2022. She was born on September 26, 1964.

Cheryl graduated from Wicomico Senior High in 1982. After graduating from high school she was employed with Campbell Soup until the plant closed. Then she was employed at McCrory's Store and Dollar General. Cheryl's final place of employment was with Toroid Corporation for sixteen (16) years.

She was a hard worker, bossy and loved having things her way. She was a beloved member of the Toroid family. Cheryl had a passion for reading, watching movies and a love for her family. She enjoyed spending time with them, eating and talking trash. The family would like to thank all those who supported Cheryl during her time of sickness.

Precious memories of Cheryl's life will be cherished by: her mother, Norma Hunter; her son, Gary Pritchett, Jr.; her god-daughter, Demahz Deal-Askins; her siblings, Blake Hunter, Brenda Warren and Tyrone (Crystal) Hunter; her nieces and nephews, Katrina (Ellsworth) Bacon, Daron (Candy) Pinkett, Blake Hunter, Jr., Tia Hunter and Shakela Anderson; several aunts and uncles and a host of cousins. Cheryl's dearest friend was Amy Deal.

Cheryl Hunter was preceded in death by her grandmother and several aunts and uncles.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

“ My condolences to the family. I have worked with Cheryl at Campbell Soup and Toroid Corporation. She was family, we talked weekly or she would come by to visit to get out and about or I would come by to check on her. We would talk and laugh, she was stubborn, a hard worker but had a soft heart. She did it her way. I will truly miss her.
