

Chiquita Ann Wilson

September 13, 1974 - May 20, 2017

Chiquita Ann “Kita” Wilson age 42 of Delmar, Maryland grew her wings and took flight May 20, 2017. She was the daughter of Denise Christopher and David Wilson Sr. Born September 13, 1974 in Salisbury, Maryland. A graduate of James M. Bennett Sr. High School. Class of 1992. The best way to describe Kita is “A Rare Gem”. The brightest gem in the world would not compare to her beauty. She possessed a uniqueness in the rarest form placed on this earth. Showering everyone with her charm and bubbly personality, she displayed remarkable determination, strength, dedication, and endurance beyond measurement and then some, surpassing any expectations placed in her path. Not only was she blessed with a rare gift, she was a rare gift. She loved life and lived it to the fullest. Her beautiful smile would light up everyone around her. Every minute shared with her was filled with priceless laughter, never a dull moment. The impression on your heart she has left behind is everlasting. Her nurturing, compassion, understanding and unconditional love didn’t stop at just her children. It extended to her nieces, nephews, cousins, strangers, friends, and family. In her eyes, you were embraced.

Kita was a former employee of Cadista Pharmaceutical in Salisbury, Maryland. She was a loving and caring mother, grandmother, aunt, great aunt, niece, daughter, sister, and companion. Preceded in death by her grandparents, the late Thelmore “Thelma” Townsend, Morris Townsend, and late Clayton Wilson Sr., an aunt, late Mary Mekins. She leaves to cherish her memory her fiancé Keith Roberts of Delmar, Maryland. 2 children, Tre’von Taylor and Arianna Gans both of Salisbury, Maryland. 4 grandchildren; De’niya Taylor, Maddison Gans-Smith and Logan Gans-Smith all of Salisbury, Maryland. and Christian Taylor of Princess Anne, Maryland. Grandmother, Mary Louise Wilson of Salisbury, Maryland, parents, Denise Christopher of Princess Anne, Maryland, David Wilson Sr. of Salisbury, Maryland. A step-father Russell Christopher of Princess Anne, Maryland., 2 brothers; Andre’ Trotter of Eden, Maryland, and David Wilson Jr. of Salisbury Maryland, a sister- in-law Aneesah Russell-Trotter of Eden, Maryland. 2 sisters; Fonnnette Gale “Candie” of Salisbury, Maryland and Melinda Totten of Delmar, Maryland. 2 aunts; Sheila Townsend of Salisbury, Maryland and Betty Ann Waters of Quantico, Maryland. 4 uncles; Clayton Wilson Jr., Joseph Riley, Thomas Dale, and Tyrone

Townsend all of Salisbury, Maryland. 3 nieces, 8 nephews, 2 great-nieces, and a host of loving cousins, family and special friends.

Even though Kita's life was brief. Embracing the memories, she left us to cherish, the unconditional love she showed and shared, the compassion, and the unbelievable strength she displayed is what we should cherish. In the darkest hour imagined, when the pain is unbearable, thinking and longing for her presence, remember her smile, her laughter, her voice, her touch, and embrace her as comfort and peace because that is what she wanted for all of us. She knew leaving us was going to be unbearable, so all the love and joy she shared with us is to compensate the void left. Now we all know she wasn't a push over either and in those moments, she rendered equally as comical, as stated earlier, never a dull moment, which make you love her even more. An exceptionally phenomenal woman, who will truly be missed and cherished. "A Rare Gem"

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief. Acts 24:15 tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please look forward to that time when you can see your loved one again. Until then may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
