Obituary

Choreaston Jean Curtis-Rogers, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, passed away on Sunday, January 20, 2019, at Coastal Hospice at the Lake, after battling with a long illness.

Choreaston Jean Gregory, the 4th child of the late Jerome N. Gregory and Francise Elizabeth Gregory, was born on December 21, 1941 in Norfolk, Virginia. Jean, as she was affectionately called, received her formal education in the public school system of Norfolk, Virginia. She was raised in the United House of Prayer for all People of Norfolk from an early age. In 1963, she moved with her family to Salisbury, Maryland. Upon the establishment of The United House of Prayer for all People, Jean continued her religious journey and became a member of the No. 1 Usher Board and the Business Board until her passing.

As a young woman she was employed at Campbell Soup Co. until they closed in the early 1990's. She then obtained employment at Wheaton Pharmatech, from which she retired in 2006. Jean was wed in holy matrimony to John Walter Rogers, Jr. in 2014.

Jean leaves to mourn her passing: her husband, John Rogers, Jr.; a daughter,

Regina Townsend (Russell); daughter-in-law, Wynnette Curtis; four stepchildren, Muriel Rogers-Madden, Kimberly Harmon, John C. Rogers and Robert W. Rogers; five siblings, Vandora Hampton of Upper Marlboro, MD, Charles Gregory, Sr. (Demetrice) of Salisbury, MD, Eunice Drummond (David) of Salisbury, MD, John Gregory (Felicia) of Portsmouth, VA and James Gregory of Suitland, MD; a sister-in-law, Betty Gregory of Hurlock, MD; five grandchildren, Mychael D. Gregory (Monique), Tasia Townsend, Tiffany Burgess, Ricky Thorne, Jr. and Tykisha Rogers; a multitude of great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews and other family and friends. Also left to mourn is a special friend, Lottie Smith, of Columbus, Ohio.

Jean was preceded in death by: her son, Ivan "Cookie" Curtis; one sister, Mary Whitney; four brothers, Harvey Gregory, Bobby Joe Gregory and wife Joyce, Napoleon Gregory and Bronson Gregory; three nieces, Jackie Holbrook, Michelle Gregory and Charlotta Barkley; two nephews, Steven Whitney and Jerome "Mark" Gregory as well her first husband, James E. Curtis, Jr.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. We are near the time when God will take action to restore peace and everlasting life to obedient humankind. God promises: I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief. Jeremiah 31:13-17. The Bible, gives us true hope for the dead and consolation for the living. Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
