

Christaphersamer Rolando Moore

October 6, 2002 - June 7, 2019

Christaphersamer Rolando Moore was born on October 6, 2002, in Dover, Delaware, to Terri Moore and Naquan Ingram. Christopher attended Smyrna High School, where he was a student athlete.

Christopher was a great child. He was both head strong and dominant. Christopher was really goofy and enjoyed making others laugh. He enjoyed being around family and friends, but most of all, Christopher loved to play basketball. He spent most of his free time at home, with friends, playing basketball or video games.

Christopher is survived by his parents, Terri Moore and Naquan Ingram; grandmothers, Carmela Powell and Lisa Ingram; grandfather, Terry Moore; sisters, Deanem Moore, Dominique Martin, Lauren Moore and Melanie Moore; brothers, Charles Joyner, Dylan Moore, Zaileel McCray and Cormega Salley; along with a host of aunts, uncles and cousins. Christopher had a special great-grandmother, Leslie Ingram; special uncle, Sadique Ingram and close friends, Izaiah Credle, Elijah Credle and Shamar Walker.
