“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. We all look forward to the near future when the earth will be a renewed paradise and death will be no more. (Rev 21:3,4)

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. Christian was a such a great young man, very kind and considerate of all. I enjoyed working together with him at the commissary. He will be forever missed. Please take some comfort in knowing that today, he is in a much better place, heaven, and he is seated at the same table with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Our prayers are with you at this very difficult time. Please accept our deepest sympathy.

“ The world may have lost a wonderful person but heaven has received a beautiful soul. Let your family and friends know that Christian will be remembered for the truly wonderful person he was. A great friend to my son and young adult that I was proud to know.

“ The Holy Scriptures tells us: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." Daniel 12:2 This assures us that death does not end it all. There is hope for our deceased loved one. God's word tells us there is going to be a resurrection of our loved ones right here on earth. It states: "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully!" -Isaiah 26:19 When this occurs, we will have an opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones right here on earth under peaceful, happy conditions with no sickness or death. Rev. 21:3,4 May these promises bring you a measure of solace during this time of sorrow.
