

Christina Denise Foster

May 24, 1966 - December 15, 2018

Christina Denise Foster (Christine) went home to with the Lord on December 15, 2018. She was born in Bronx, New York, on May 24, 1966, to the late James Foster and Beechie Lee Morrison Foster. She was the third of five siblings.

Upon relocating to Delaware, Christine attended the Milford School System. She attended sporting events in Milford, keeping those around her in laughter. Upon her graduation from Milford High School, Christine was a Social Work major, at then, Delaware State College, for three and a half years. Her college years were also filled with joy, gathering friends along the way. While there, Christine was involved in theater productions. From time to time, she would bring friends home from college to fellowship with her family and get a good meal. Her favorite NFL team was the Pittsburg Steelers.

Upon living on her own, Christine entered the work force. Some of her career jobs included Civil Service at the Dover Air Force Base, AT&T of New Jersey and a few others.

Christine grew up in church and she loved the Lord. She attended Mt. Enon Baptist Church in Milford, Delaware. At Mt. Enon, she could be found participating in Vacation Bible School, singing in the Children's Choir or singing during church services, via special requests. A church favorite was “Son Shine”. She had a beautiful voice. Christine gave her life to the Lord and was a member of Crossroad Christian Church in Dover, Delaware. She was involved in several ministries at the church until illness interfered. She loved her pastors, Anthony and Margo Wallace, and her co-laborers in Christ. Christine loved her family, life, and to laugh. She was willing to be a blessing to others and helped whenever and wherever she could.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother, Beechie Foster, of Milford, DE; three brothers, Dana Morrison of Greenwood, DE, and his daughter, Tonya Griffin, Jerome Foster of Milford, DE, and his children Arielle R. and Brandon J. Foster, Robert Foster (Corrine) of Renton, Washington, and his children, Shayla Foster-Heyne and Joshua R. Foster; sister, Conswala L. Foster of Dover, DE and her children, Korion Winder and Domonic C. Foster; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. We are near the time when God will take action to restore peace and everlasting life to obedient humankind. God promises: I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief. Jeremiah 31:13-17. The Bible, gives us true hope for the dead and consolation for the living. Acts 24:15; Revelation 20:12-14; 21:1-4. Ms Woodson
