

Christine Rosetta Mitchell (Brown)

December 19, 1940 - January 11, 2019

Obituary

Christina Rosetta (Brown) Mitchell, daughter of late Benjamin L. Brown, Sr. and Mary Ellen McDaniel, was born on December 19, 1940. She departed this life on Friday, January 11, 2019 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

Christine, as she was affectionately called, received her formal education in the Delaware school system. After completing her education, Christine worked in the poultry industry for several years as a USDA inspector and in the printing industry as a Quality Control Inspector.

Christine loved cooking her famous home made yeast rolls, pies and cakes. She had a green thumb as she could make any plant grow from nothing. She also had a love for sports, especially basketball. She was a member of several social clubs, including the awesome RED Hat Society Club and the Birthday Club.

She will be lovingly remembered by: her sister, Lula Mae Brown of Wilmington, Delaware; three sons, Arnold (Shellene) Davis of Seaford, Delaware, Calvin (Viola) Davis of Salisbury, Maryland and Frank (Kim) Brown of Grayson, Georgia; three daughters, Debra Jolley and Roberta Jolley, both of Salisbury, Maryland and Lisa Jolley of Charlotte, North Carolina; fifteen grandchildren; thirty-two great grandchildren; eleven great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

In addition to her father and mother, she was also preceded in death by her husband, Thomas Mitchell, Sr., brother, Benjamin I. Brown, Jr., grandson, Arnold Davis, Jr. ("TJ"), granddaughter, Keisha Davis and a devoted family friend, Martina Gaines ("Big Mom").

“ On be half of our mother Lula Mae Brown and sister of Aunt Christine , she sends her prayers and deepest heartfelt condolences to the family. It is with great hurt and sadness that she now mourns the loss of your mother and her last sibling BUT she is comforted in knowing that HE that created her has now called her unto himself. Mother looks forward to the day when she and her siblings will be reunited and see him face to face together in paradise. Aunt Lula Mae wants the children to know that she remains just a phone call away. "REST IN GLORY...I'll remember you my dear sister...love you always Lula Mae"Loving submitted,

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Rosetta. Please note the words of Acts 24:15, "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Christine has the hope of a resurrection to Paradise. (Luke 23:43)

“ I am very sorry to read of your loss. As we mourn the loss of those we love, no one stands alone, we all have to endure a loss. The need of a warm smile, or even a touch, along with the need to exchange words of comfort. 2cor1:4 I am so very sorry for your loss
